VOLUME LXI JANUARY-DECEMBER

1972

TODAY'S EDUCATION, the Journal of the National Education Association, serves the entire membership of the Association. It has the largest circulation of any professional journal. Its policy is determined by the resolutions and activities of the Association itself. It aims to give an overall view of education. It emphasizes pioneer undertakings. It seeks to encourage among educators a broader interest in the larger problems of education and life.

Persons binding their copies of TODAY'S EDUCATION: NEA JOURNAL into an annual volume may use this sheet for a title page. The 1972 volume includes nine issues; one for each month except for June, July, and August.

Elected officers of the National Education Association include Catharine Barrett, president; Helen D. Wise, vice-president, president-elect; Donald E. Morrison, immediate past president; and Nelson L. Kreuze, treasurer. Allan M. West is acting executive secretary. John D. Sullivan, director of communications services, is publisher of TODAY'S EDUCATION. Staff members are: Mildred Sandison Fenner, editor; Walter A. Graves, executive editor; Marion B. Tucker, senior assistant editor; Paul E. Bergman, production and business consultant; Raymond K. Butler, Jr., circulation manager; Robert F. O'Connor, advertising manager.
